Re: Service of Responses to Center for Biological Diversity's Data Responses

On January 27, 2008, Carlsbad Energy Center LLC docketed and served on all parties a CD-Rom containing the responses and related attachments to the Center for Biological Diversity's data requests, including a lengthy document entitled California Public Utilities' November 18, 2008 Proposed Decision on the Sunrise Powerlink Transmission Project (Attachment DRF1-2). While the responses and attachments thereto were also served on all parties in hard copy, the above-referenced Attachment was not included in that mailing due to the volume of the Attachment. To that end, provided herein for your convenience is a hard copy of Attachment DRF1-2.
