Michael E. Rossi is the Senior Advisor for Jobs and Business Development in the Office of the Governor. In this role, Rossi is the point of contact between California's business and workforce leaders and the Administration. Rossi advises Governor Brown on regulatory, legislative, and executive actions needed to drive job growth.

From 2005 to 2008, Rossi served as an advisor and senior member of the operations team at Cerberus Capital Management, and as chairman and chief executive officer of Aozora Bank, taking it public in November 2006. From 2007 to 2008, he also served as chairman of GMAC Residential Capital. Rossi was vice chairman and chief risk officer of BankAmerica Corporation, and was the chairman of its Fiduciary and Investment Policy Committee from 1993 to 1997. Previously, he was BankAmerica's chief credit officer and held various executive positions, including running BankAmerica's Commercial Banking, Global Private Bank, Asia, Latin America, Commercial Real Estate, Corporate Real Estate, Personal and Corporate Trust and Cash Management divisions. He also served as the senior credit officer of BankAmerica's World Banking Group.

Rossi currently serves on the Advisory Board of Shorenstein Properties, the Court Appointed Special Advocates of Monterey County, Special Olympics Committee of Northern California, and Claremont Graduate University. He is also a senior advisor to the San Francisco 49ers.

Rossi is a former director of North Hawaii Community Hospital, BAWAG Bank (Austria), Pulte Homes, American Bankers Association, Monterey Institute of International Studies, American Graduate School of International Management, University of California at Berkeley Art Museum, Del Webb Corporation, BlueLinx Corporation, San Francisco Opera, National Urban League, Union Pacific Resources, Lifesavers, American Diabetes Association of California, and United Way of Northern California. He was a member of the nominating committee of the Bankers Association for Foreign Trade and was the president of its Board. He also served on the President's Campaign Cabinet for University of California at Berkeley.

Rossi received a bachelor's degree from the University of California at Berkeley.
