Dear Mr. Worl:

At the Council Meeting of March 27 the City Council directed Staff to write a letter to the CEC requesting that they hold an additional informational meeting for the residents of the City of Grand Terrace. It is felt by some members of the community that not everyone is aware of the project and therefore not aware of the hearings and were unable to be present and make comments. We are requesting that if such a hearing could be held that we receive at least 45 days notice so that we could adequately supplement your advertising to ensure that the notices are widely dispersed.

Should this option not be acceptable to the CEC we request that you provide for us approximately when the preliminary Determination of Compliance will be issued and when the Preliminary Staff Assessment Workshop will be held.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and we look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Thomas Schwab
City Manager
